Oklahoma City fandom was highly pleased with the showing made by their Senators in the brief series with Muskogee on the home lot which closed with yesterday's game, following the sudden reversal of form at Tulsa.

Here are some figures that show how important was the change in the work of the Senators. In the last six games, three with the league leaders at Tulsa, and three with the Mets here, Snapp's men made nine more hits than they did during the entire preceding home series of thirteen games. They scored 35 runs to 23 for their opponents, outhit Tulsa and Muskogee .62 to .43, and made but 13 errors, while the Mets and Indians were making 22.

No, notwithstanding the fact that the Indians' winning streak was broken when the Mets took the last of the series Tuesday, followers of baseball are jubilant over the difference seen in the Senators' work.

These Figures Again.

Following are the statistics on runs, hits and errors, for the last six games.

The Senators' improvement with the stick has caused more joy to supporters of the club than anything else. The decisive manner in which Snapp's men trounced Tulsa and Muskogee in the last two encounters was impressive.

Williamson, substitute centerfielder, has been the star of the last six games, far as stickswinging is concerned. His average is .550. Nagle and McCabe have continued to hold the horsehide, Clemens has shown wonderful improvement.

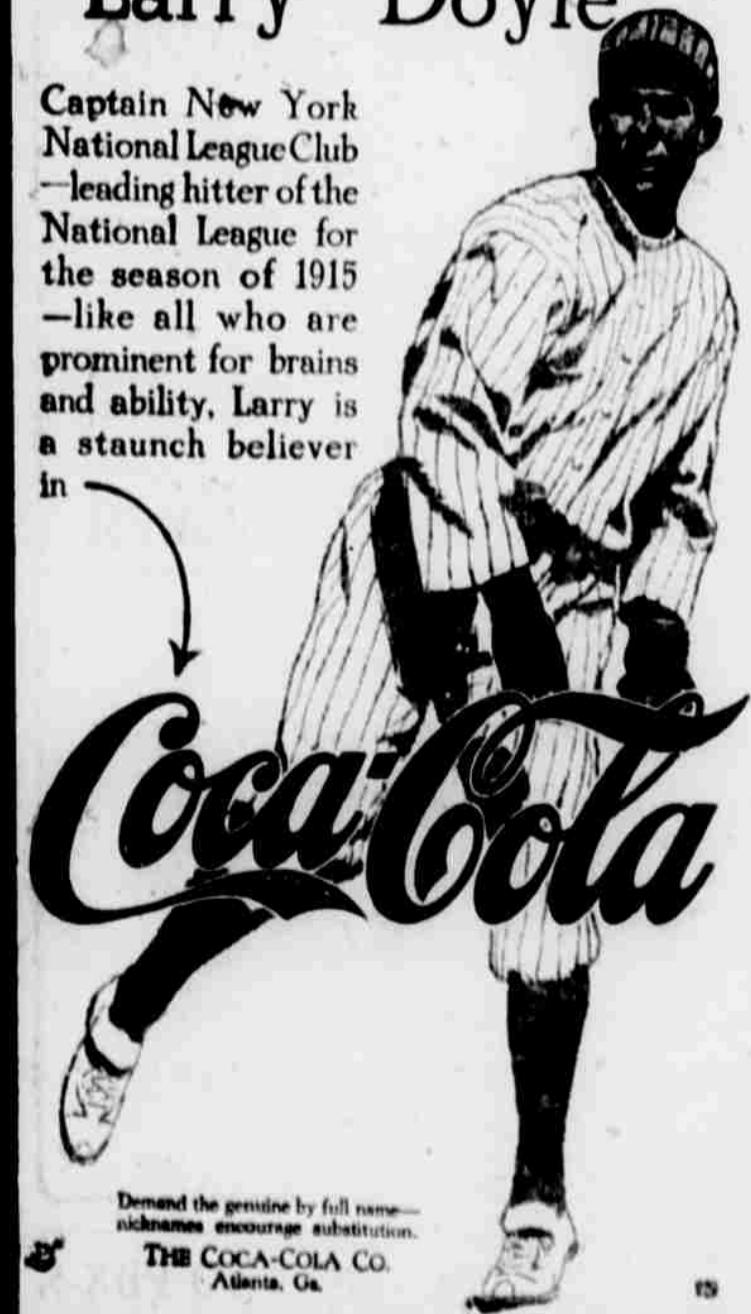

KATY TEAMS TO PLAY AT SARATOGA SATURDAY

Saratoga park will be the scene next Saturday afternoon of the first baseball game between the K. & T. Employees League to be played in this city. The Oklahoma City team, made up of men from the superintendents' offices, will play the McAlester team, composed of employees from the freight offices and yards of McAlester. Clubs from the Empire, M. K. & T. circuit are represented in the Emporia league, other Oklahoma City in Saturday's game will be Gettysburg vs. McAlester; and McAlester, Casey and Jones.

Marathon running may be inferior to some distance, but Sister Hatch, the veteran Oklahoma runner, doesn't show it. It's an even bet that your children will some day applaud her performance the same as your grandfather did.

PRETTY GIRL BEATS MEN AND BOYS FOR BALL TEAM BERTH

REICHMOND, Ind., May 12.—Miss Sue Truskofski, making out a classed all-fun competition, is now regarded as a favorite in center field for one of the factory baseball teams of the Richmond Commercial laundry, will take the girls' senior player in the league of eight cities, but she is expected to show up only in the field, but at least in the box.

Early this spring when the men and boys employed at the factory passed away the noon hour playing baseball, Miss Truskofski joined them and discovered an amazing aptitude for the national game. She showed more skill than a number of men and boys for the outfield position and was prevailed upon to play the center garden.

Diamond GLINTS

While adverse weather forced Cleveland to be left Washington, Wednesday evening on Detroit, humbling the Tigers 15 to 2.

It was no fault of Terrell E. Cobb that the Tigers were not returned winners. They batted out four hits in five trips up, and was responsible for most of the batters registered for his team.

Cobb must have made a study of Cobb during the winter's last four Georgia Beach batted swingings. But nothing against Cobb. Tuesday was the first day they met this season, and Cobb got four outs in five attempts.

Joe Payne's mistake in reaching above his shoulder to seize a ball off a eighthinning of yesterday's game prevented Oklahoma City from knifing the count in the game with Muskogee, and, possibly, cheated the senators of another victory. The bases were full and two were out. Payne probably was too eager.

Jesse Phillips won five of the eight single league games attended for yesterday afternoon. In the American, the only contest was the unopened affair between Washington and Detroit. In the National, St. Louis dethroned Brooklyn and Philadelphia easily defeated Cincinnati.

The victory for Muskogee came over one of the better teams around. These games you are helping to pull the plug up in the race, despite the long lead established by the Indians and Braves before they started their Western invasion.

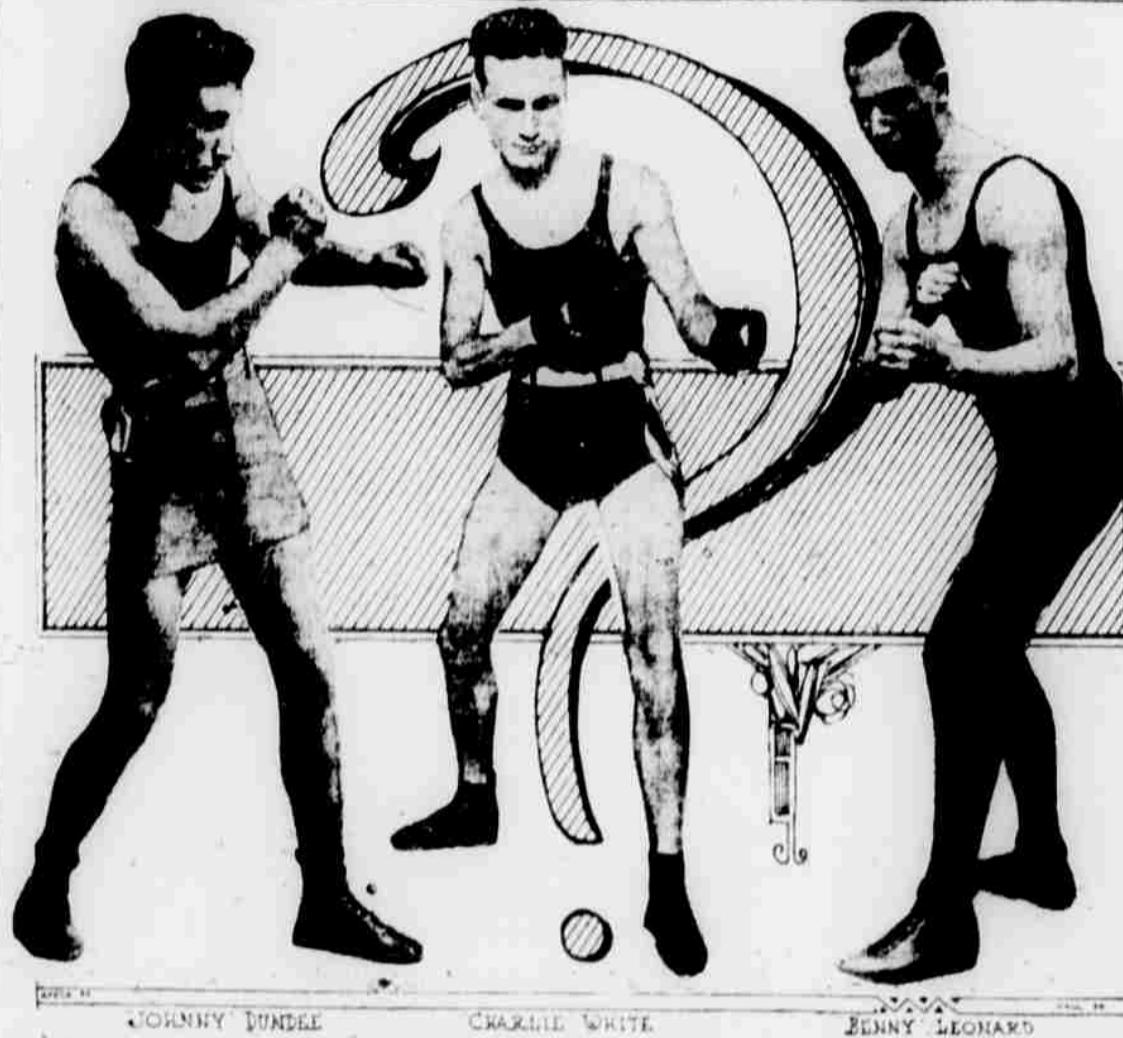

Perry Marlowe got to the old creaky, "Pep" Indians in the fourth inning of Tuesday's game, and averaged a good lead held in the Twins. Paris won by nine runs to five. The Seniors being called at the end of the second in order to allow both teams to catch a train.

Hard hitting by Hoffman, Jensen and Querry gave Dennis another victory over Sherman Tuesday. The score was 10 to 5.

"FREDDIE" WELSH'S GREATEST TROUBLES

The three lightweights to be seen in the above picture look up as far as the most likely of all the candidates now seeking to step into Freddie Welsh's shoes. Welsh has been sidestepping Dundee, White and Leonard, but the public is clamoring for a bout in which the title will be at stake.

Of the three Benny Leonard is considered the most prominent now as the result of recent victories. Many ring critics believe Leonard is the best lightweight in the country today, not excepting the champion.

A new lightweight star appeared on the horizon recently in the person of young Mr. Ever Hammer, the Chicago lad who thoroughly whipped Champ Freddie in a ten-round no-decision bout.
